

The Keepers of the Light

by Theodosia Garrison,
in McClure's

*We are the keepers of that steadfast light
That guides a people's course and destiny;
Not ours the skill directing over the sea
The mighty beams that blaze the path aright:
Ours but the hands that, serving, keep it bright.*

*The bringers of the oil, the workers we
Who day long, without pause and faithfully,
Toil that its radiance may pierce the night.*

*Above us are the wills that guide and turn:
It is not ours to watch nor question these:
Ours but to see each wick is trimmed and fit.
Lest on a night of storm it fails to burn
And a Great Ship goes down in awful seas.
O, Keepers of the light, keep faith with it!*
