

Use the Venn Diagram above to compare and contrast three sources of information about Nubble Lighthouse. These could be books, articles, videos, or pictures. The dark blue areas are for things that are the same about the three sources. The light blue is for differences. In the center should be things the same about all three sources. Print small so you can fit more information!